Date of the event: October 26th ,2024

Venue of the event: Online mode

Coordinating Society: Computer Science Students' Society

On 26th October 2024, the Computer Science Students' Society organized "Diwali Delights" which was a diwali card making event. This event was designed to awaken the creative side of the participants making their festival more colorful and joyful through their creativity.

The CSSS Society recently organized a Diwali wish card making activity to awaken the creative spirit of students on campus. Participants were encouraged to create cards at home using any shape, size, color, or quote, allowing for a broad spectrum of artistic expression. The response was overwhelmingly positive, with many students showcasing their unique talents through a variety of designs, from traditional motifs to contemporary interpretations. The submitted cards were displayed on campus, fostering a sense of community and festive spirit. This initiative not only highlighted the creativity present among students but also strengthened campus connections, making it a successful celebration of Diwali.

The participants shown great enthusiasm and submitted amazing handmade greeting cards by them. The best are card makers are ranked as First- Parth kr Gupta 1st year CSE, Second- Vanshika 3rd year CSE and Third- Kanak verma 2nd year DS followed by three consolation prizes to Manik Pratap Singh 4th year CSE, Rajdeep Singh 3rd year CSE, Alisha Parveen DS 3rd year.

The winners were awarded with certificates and prizes by Mr. Manish Gupta H.O.D CSE for their creative cardmaking. The primary aim of the competition was to encourage students towards creative skills making the festival of Diwali more meaningful.

The event was successfully coordinated by student coordinators Vivek Kishor 4th year, Divyanshi Saxena 3rd year, and Siddharta Bhatnagar 2nd year. All members of the team played an active role in the organization and execution of the event.

The faculty mentors for the event - Ms. Richa Saxena (Society Convener), Ms. Sakshi Singh, Mr. Rohit Kr. Singh, and Mr. Prabal Bhatnagar played a significant role in guiding and supporting the team. Their support encouraged us to organise and to make this event successful.
